

Carole Knight

GFGC Board Member

Carole works for UGA Extension in Bulloch County as an Ag and Natural Resources Agent. She has served in this role since 2011. Prior to, she was a Beef Cattle Specialist with the UGA Animal and Dairy Science Department. Through UGA Extension she is a member of the Forage Extension Team, which assists with forage programming throughout the state. Her background is in beef cattle production and meat science. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture and Master of Science in Animal Science from the University of Georgia. She also assists with the running of the family farm, Sandbriar Farms, which consists of 75 head of Murray Grey and Hereford cattle. She lives in Sylvania, Georgia with her husband Kyle and son Beau.