

Josh Baker

GFGC Secretary

Originally from Chattooga County, GA, Joshua Baker grew up on a small beef operation in the foothills. While attending Berry College he was extensively involved in the Beef Unit and was a member of the team that began the Berry Angus Beef direct marketing program. After graduating from Berry in 2011, Joshua began developing his agriculture career in Southeastern Pennsylvania for forage and cover crop distributor, King's AgriSeeds, Inc. After four years in PA, Joshua moved back to Georgia to continue the development of King's AgriSeeds southern division as well as to pursue the development of his own cow herd and rotational grazing system. Joshua currently resides in Lyerly, GA with his wife, Aubrie.
