

A close-up photograph of a bumblebee with black and yellow stripes foraging on a large, pink, multi-petaled flower. The background is filled with lush green leaves, creating a natural and vibrant setting.

Forages such as alfalfa & clovers
add nitrogen to the soil,
reducing the need for fertilizers

Celebrate National Forage Week

www.AFGC.org June 18-24, 2017